He Is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back

Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him

Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember him and only that he is gone

Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back

Or you can do what he would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Obituary of

Mr. Charles Prentis Waston II

Mr. Charles Prentis Watson, II, was born October 23, 1963, in Columbia, SC. He was one of nine children born to the late Charles Prentis Watson, Sr. and Almena Watson. He departed this life on June 28, 2025.

Mr. Watson was educated in the public school system of Richland County, South Carolina, and graduated from Dreher High School, Class of 1982. He went on to study at Midlands Technical College and married his high school sweetheart in 2003.

Mr. Watson was a devoted fan of the Clemson Tigers and the Philadelphia Eagles. In addition to sports, he had a passion for fishing, cooking, and photography. However, nothing mattered more to him than his family and friends.

In addition to his parents, Charles was preceded in death by his brothers, James L. Watson and Baby Boy Watson; and a sister, Diane Watson.

Mr. Watson leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Sharon Kelly-Watson; his son, Charles C. Kelly; his stepdaughter, Erika Williams; sisters, Cynthia Watson, Wilhemina Watson-Colclough, Mary Louise (Craig) Golston, Sandra Renea Watson, all of Columbia, SC, and Brenda Charlene (Jeff) Watson-Wallace of Hinesville, GA; a brother, Marius (Lisa) James of Charlotte, NC; six grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will all miss him dearly.
