

Pallbearers

Family and Friends

Floral Bearers

Family and Friends

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Sandra Rivers Brock, wish to express our deepest gratitude for the many acts of kindness, love, and support shown during this time of loss. Your prayers, visits, calls, messages, and comforting words have been a tremendous source of strength and encouragement.

A special thank you to the compassionate medical team and the incredible nurses who cared for Sandra during her treatment — your dedication and tenderness will never be forgotten.

We also extend our heartfelt appreciation to Leevy's Funeral Home for their professional and caring support, and to all of our beloved family and friends who have stood beside us with love, faith, and generosity.

May God bless each of you for your thoughtfulness and care.

A Celebration of Life In Loving Memory of Mrs. Sandra Rivers Brock

Monday, August 11, 2025

11:00 a.m.

Leevy's Funeral Home Chapel

1831 Taylor Street

Columbia, South Carolina

Reverend Lorenzo Washington

-Officiating-

CONTACT US:

*Taylor Street Chapel
803-771-7799*

*Lower Richland Chapel
803-776-6922*

WWW.LEEVY.COM

*I. S. Leevy Johnson
-Owner-*

Services Entrusted To:

Leevy's
*Chris Leevy Johnson
-Managing Director-*

SIGN THE ONLINE REGISTRY:

*Leverette A. Williams, II
-General Manager-*

Reflections of the Life of
Mrs. Sandra Rivers Brock

Mrs. Sandra Rivers Brock was born on December 20, 1956, in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, to the late Albertha McKelvey Rivers and Lawrence Rivers, Sr.

After graduating from high school, Sandra moved to Columbia, South Carolina, in 1977, to attend Columbia College, where she began building a life rooted in faith, love, and service. On July 3, 1982, she married the love of her life, Roy Eugene Brock, Jr., at Providence Baptist Church— “ooh, was it hot that day!” But their love was even stronger, and over the next 43 years, they built a beautiful life together.

Sandra was a devoted and loving mother to her four daughters: Janelle Brock Bowens (Maurice), Tiffani Brock Coffie (Michael), Michele Brock Brown (Jamie), and Ashton Brock (Ronald). She was also the proud and joyful grandmother of ten beautiful grandchildren, who brought her endless laughter, hugs, and light.

In addition to these loved ones, she is survived by her cherished siblings, Lawrence Rivers, Jr. (Jackie) and Deloris Robinson (Ronnie), and her sister-in-law, Rosalind Vinson. Sandra also shared a special bond with those she lovingly called her “special siblings,” Sonia Wilson (Caleb) and Pastor Lorenzo Washington, whose presence added joy and spiritual connection to her life.

Sandra was a treasured niece of her living aunts, Louisa Gadsden and Mary Washington, her uncle, Ike McKelvey, and her husband’s beloved aunts. She held a deep appreciation for her entire extended family and lovingly acknowledged all her nieces, nephews, cousins, and devoted friends. Their affection for her ran deep, and Sandra held their love close to her heart with honor and gratitude.

Family meant everything to Sandra. She had a gift for bringing people together—whether she was planning a trip, coordinating a celebration, or gathering everyone just because. Her love for her family was big, bold, and unwavering. Her sharp wit and shady sense of humor kept everyone laughing - you could never predict what she would say next.

Sandra also had a special group of close companions she affectionately called her “Secret Pals,” who were her Prayer Warriors through life’s highs and lows. Their friendship, encouragement, and quiet strength brought her tremendous joy and comfort.

A dedicated public servant, Sandra spent 37 years working for the State of South Carolina and, for five of those years, also worked part-time at Blue Cross Blue Shield. Her strong work ethic, warm heart, and humble spirit left a lasting impression on all who had the privilege of working with her.

Above all, Sandra was a woman of grace, compassion, and unwavering faith. She often said that God had abundantly blessed her and her family with His mercy, grace, and love—and she reflected those blessings in every corner of her life.

Her legacy is one of kindness, strength, laughter, and joy. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

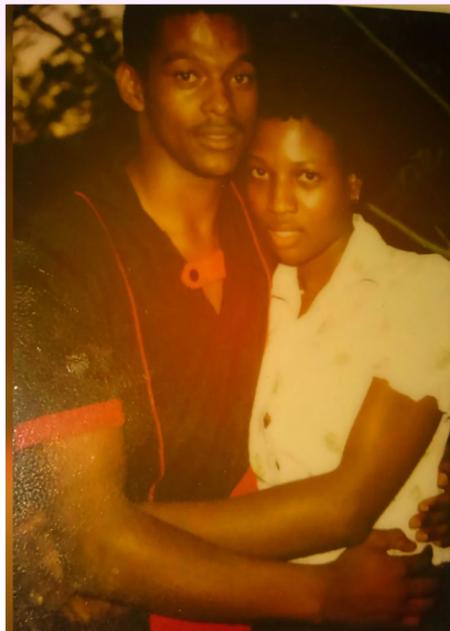

- A 19th Century Funeral Sermon -

*I am standing upon the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.*

*Then, someone at my side says; "There, she is gone!"
"Gone where?" Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.*

*Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "There, she is gone!"
There are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: "Here she comes!"
And that is dying.*

Sandra and Roy's Love Story

Order of Service

Prelude.....“I Shall Wear A Crown” Recording by: Yolanda Deberry
Processional
Viewing.....Funeral Directors
Opening Hymn.....“My Soul Has Been Anchored” Recording by: Douglas Walker
Old Testament.....Psalm 23: 1-6.....Ms. Sierra Karo
New Testament.....John 14:1-6..... Ms. Tatyana Brock
Prayer of Comfort.....Mrs. Michele Brown
Musical Selection
Remarks.....Mrs. Sonia Gadsden WilsonMrs. Tiffani CoffieDr. Ashton Brock
Musical Selection.....“I’ll Fly Away” Recording by: Hezekiah Walker
Words of ComfortReverend Lorenzo Washington
Recessional.....“Going Up Yonder” Recording by: Walter Hawkins
Postlude

Committal, Benediction, and Interment

Crescent Hill Memorial Gardens
2603 Two Notch Road
Columbia, South Carolina

