A Hero's Welcome

By: Robert Longley

Time to come home dear brother
Your tour of duty through
You've given as much as anyone
Could be expected to do.

Just a few steps further
The smoke will start to clear
Others here will guide you
You have no need to fear.

You have not failed your brothers
You dearly gave it all

And through your selfless actions
Others will hear the call.

So, take your place of honor
Among those who have gone before
And know you will be remembered
For now, and evermore.

Obituary

Mr. Samuel Lee Jones was born on June 4, 1943, in Greenwood, South Carolina. He departed this life on Tuesday, August 12, 2025, at the Dorn V.A. Medical Center. Samuel was the beloved son of the late Robert and Martha Jones.

Samuel was educated in the public schools of Greenwood, South Carolina. After graduating high school, he enlisted in the United States Army at Fort Bragg, in 1963 as an Airborne Trooper. Samuel relocated to Boston, MA and started his employment with General Dynamics Shipyard as a welder, later becoming a supervisor. After his employment with General Dynamics Shipyard ended, he became employed with Shell Gasoline and later with the Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Boston, MA, for 20 years as a warehouse supervisor. After retiring, he returned to South Carolina.

He was a member of Word Alive Church, where he enjoyed the teachings and hymns. Samuel was a hard worker and made sure his family had all the necessary things they needed. He was never afraid to take on new opportunities. Samuel was honest in everything he did and operated in integrity. Samuel has very strong values and was loved by everyone.

In addition to his parents, Samuel was preceded in death by his siblings, Minnie Byrd, Willie Austin, Annie Price, Roberta Jones, Robert Jones, and Elizabeth Jackson.

Mr. Samuel Lee Jones is survived by his loving wife, Myridene Jones; daughter, Jennifer Jones of Boston, MA; son, Brian Jones and his wife Hattie Jones of Columbia, SC; six grandchildren, Tielur, Shumon, Jayelyn, Jasmine, Samirah, and Roger; two sisters, Martha Moore of Boston, MA and Reverend Hattie Henderson of Greenwood, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

“Uncle Sammie,” as he was affectionately called, his physical presence may no longer grace our lives, but his spirit will continue to inspire and uplift us. May his memory be a blessing as we carry our love for him in our hearts.
