Celebrating the Life of
MR. ISAIAH LEE

He Is Not Gone

Ease your grief, he is not gone,
For in your heart, he lingers on.
His smile, his laugh, his special way,
Will comfort you, from day to day.

You'll feel his presence in the breeze,
That dances gently, through the trees.
And it's his face that you shall see,
When you're in need of company.

At any time, you can recall,
The love you shared...you saved it all.
And in time, more than anything,
You'll find peace in remembering.

Obituary of Mr. Isaiah Lee

On August 17, 2025, the most high said, "My son it is time to come home, it is time to rest." Isaiah Lee was born on August 15, 1985, to Judith Lee and the late Michael Wayne Anderson, in Harlem, New York.

Isaiah was a beloved son, brother, uncle, cousin and friend, all titles that he held dear to his heart. The title he loved most of all was FATHER! To have known him was to know how deeply he loved his children. Isaiah attended Murry Bergtraum High School. Shortly after high school, he relocated to Fayetteville, North Carolina and started his journey of fatherhood. Isaiah worked for several years at the Greyhound Station to support his family, until the passing of his father. He eventually relocated to Columbia, South Carolina to be closer to his mother and siblings. Isaiah devoted his remaining years working in transportation as a professional mover with future dreams of eventually starting his own company.

Isaiah Lee leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Judith Lee King; father, Jack King; his first born daughter and eldest child Anaya Arielle Lee, Araya Elizabeth Lee; his only son, Isaiah King Jeremiah Lee; two sisters, Tamika Lee and Michelle Lee; brothers, Michael Anderson, Dominick Anderson, Shepard Anderson, Preston Winters, Jaquan King, and Javonn King; in-laws, Joseph Stovall, Aryln King, and Ashley King. To know Isaiah was to know his nieces and nephews were his children as much as his own. He leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews, Michael, Makhayla, Makhail, Tamia, Laila, Eric, Kalik, Alberto, Alena, Shane, Myana, Kylie, Jordan, Maddox, Maddie, Aariah, A'ziah, Jeremiah, Jada, Shyliek, Jaxson and Melody; bonus nieces, Taylor, Jada, Jakia, Tori, Ameyah, and Kristal. Over the last two years Isaiah was extremely excited to become a great uncle to Jelani and Yasir. He also created a new title Grandpa Tio to Baby Ace.

Although he is no longer with us in body, Isaiah's spirit remains in the hearts of those who carry his memory, and those that knew him will remember the warmth in his smile.
