

Obituary

Mr. Kenneth “Mont” Montgomery was born on Friday, July 18, 1975, at Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina, to Alvin Germany and Debora Montgomery. Weighing 7 pounds, 8 ounces, Kenny entered this world as a precious gift from God.

In his early years, Kenny grew up in Latimer Manor Housing and later in the Greenview community. He attended several schools in the Columbia area and graduated from Eau Claire High School. Known for his prowess on the Greenview Park basketball court, Kenny never shied away from competition. Always a fierce competitor, he played with passion and energy, but for him it was always about fun, friendship, and the love of the game. As an adult, Kenny explored multiple professions but ultimately found his true calling in the trucking industry. He took immense pride in his work, especially driving his semi-truck, which he loved so much. His dedication and joy in his career reflected the same determination and heart he carried throughout his life.

For 50 blessed years, Kenny’s life was a testament of love, strength, and faith. He loved his family and friends dearly, and it was always known that Kenny never met a stranger—he was welcoming to everyone he encountered.

Kenny enjoyed spending time with his loved ones, playing video games, pulling practical jokes, and sharing laughter. His humor, warmth, and vibrant spirit brought joy wherever he went.

On Friday, August 15, 2025, God called Kenny home to eternal rest, completing his earthly journey and beginning his heavenly one. Kenny’s time with us reminds us that life is not measured by years alone, but by the love we share, the memories we create, and the legacy we leave behind. His spirit will live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and all who were blessed to know him.

Mr. Kenneth L. Montgomery leaves to cherish his precious memory: his wife, Yuvonna Montgomery; his sons, Kenneth Montgomery, Jr. Landan Montgomery, Kenden Montgomery; daughters, De’Onna Washington, Ke’Asia Montgomery, Zamonie Covington, and Kennedi Montgomery; mother, Debora Montgomery; father, Alvin Germany (Georgine); siblings, Darryl Montgomery, Jamal Basnight, and Maggie Montgomery; grandchildren, Trarra Robinson, Adalee Montgomery, and Kourage Covington; aunts, Janice Montgomery, Laretta Stephens, Cynthia Tucker, and Linda Maxwell; nephews, Kareem Montgomery and Denim Montgomery; nieces, Heaven Montgomery and Madison Montgomery; a host of cousins, extended family members, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Trucker's Prayer

Lord, please help me to be
Safe as I travel each mile.
Let your presence guide me
And bring me a smile.
Take care of my family while
I am away. Let them know
I miss them each and every day.
Steer me clear of danger
As I drive these miles alone.
I put my hands in yours, Lord.

...until we meet again
