

Memories

Fall

*There is an over cast
Very grayish and colorful sky
What an awesome sight
My eyes caught an open view
One that will not be diminished
Two birds playing in a tree
They appear to be skipping about
Surprisingly they race toward me
As to say, "Come join us"
You too can be free you see
Jehovah God has told us so
For a moment, I was dreaming
Maybe my mind was playing tricks
Can you imagine such a sight?
Come join me and see for yourself
It's really real, not make believe
Your eyes will behold the beauty
Someone greater will fulfill
As time goes on you will enjoy*

Obituary

Barbara Bolton Glover, age 82, passed away peacefully on September 19th at Seven Oaks Rehabilitation and Health Care Center. Born on July 25, 1943, Barbara was the oldest child of the late David & Caroline Bolton.

Barbara was a graduate of Booker T. Washington in 1962. Because of her love for Jehovah, she was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on October 20, 1974, and was a dedicated servant of Jehovah for 51 years. Barbara was a devoted and caring mother, grandmother, sister and friend whose kindness touched everyone who knew her. She was well known for her ministry, her beautiful poems, her love of gardening, her skill in sewing, and her talent as a hairstylist. She had a remarkable gift for remembering others, always sending a thoughtful card on anniversaries, and even on the most difficult days of remembrance. Her simple yet meaningful gestures brought comfort and joy to countless hearts over the years.

She was preceded in death by parents, David and Caroline Bolton; brothers, Leroy Bolton, Melvin Bolton, James Albert Bolton, Eugene Bolton and Bernard Bolton.

Barbara leaves to cherish her memories her children, Elijah (Taunya) Glover of Groton, Connecticut, Anna Marie Glover of Columbia, SC, Shawn (Beatrice) Glover of Rock Hill, SC, Gerald Kenneth Glover of Columbia, SC, Keith (Tiffany) Glover of Columbia, SC and Antonio Glover of Decatur, Georgia. Eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; sisters, Mrs. Deborah Carmichael, Mrs. Betty Wilson, and Mrs. Deloris Vaughn; brothers, David (Mary Elaine) Bolton Jr., Ernest (Margaret) Bolton, Paul Bolton, Silas Bolton all of Columbia, SC and a host of other loving relatives and friends who love and miss her dearly.
