

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

It is with deep sorrow and love that we announce the passing of Sheronda Lynn Figgures, who departed this life on Friday, September 26, 2025, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital, in Columbia, South Carolina, at the age of 54.

Lynn was born on January 25, 1971, in Benton Harbor, Michigan, to Martha Taylor and Donnie Bethea. A proud graduate of Eau Claire High School in Benton Harbor, Michigan, Lynn carried with her a warmth and spirit that touched the hearts of everyone she encountered.

Known for her boundless kindness, Lynn was always willing to lend a hand, even when she had little to offer. Her generosity knew no bounds, and she had a natural gift for making everyone feel seen and loved. Lynn was a regular at family gatherings, where her joy and infectious personality lit up the room. She was the one to insist on taking family photos, ensuring that every moment of love and togetherness was captured.

Lynn was also a passionate supporter of her beloved South Carolina Lady Gamecocks basketball team, often seen cheering them on with unmatched enthusiasm. Her loyalty to her team was only surpassed by her love for her family and community.

For the last six years, Lynn worked at the Columbia Housing Authority in accounting, where her work ethic, dedication, and warmth made a lasting impact on all who had the privilege of working alongside her.

Lynn's memory will forever live on in the hearts of her family, friends, and all who knew her. She touched countless lives with her kindness, generosity, and love. Her absence leaves a void that can never be filled.

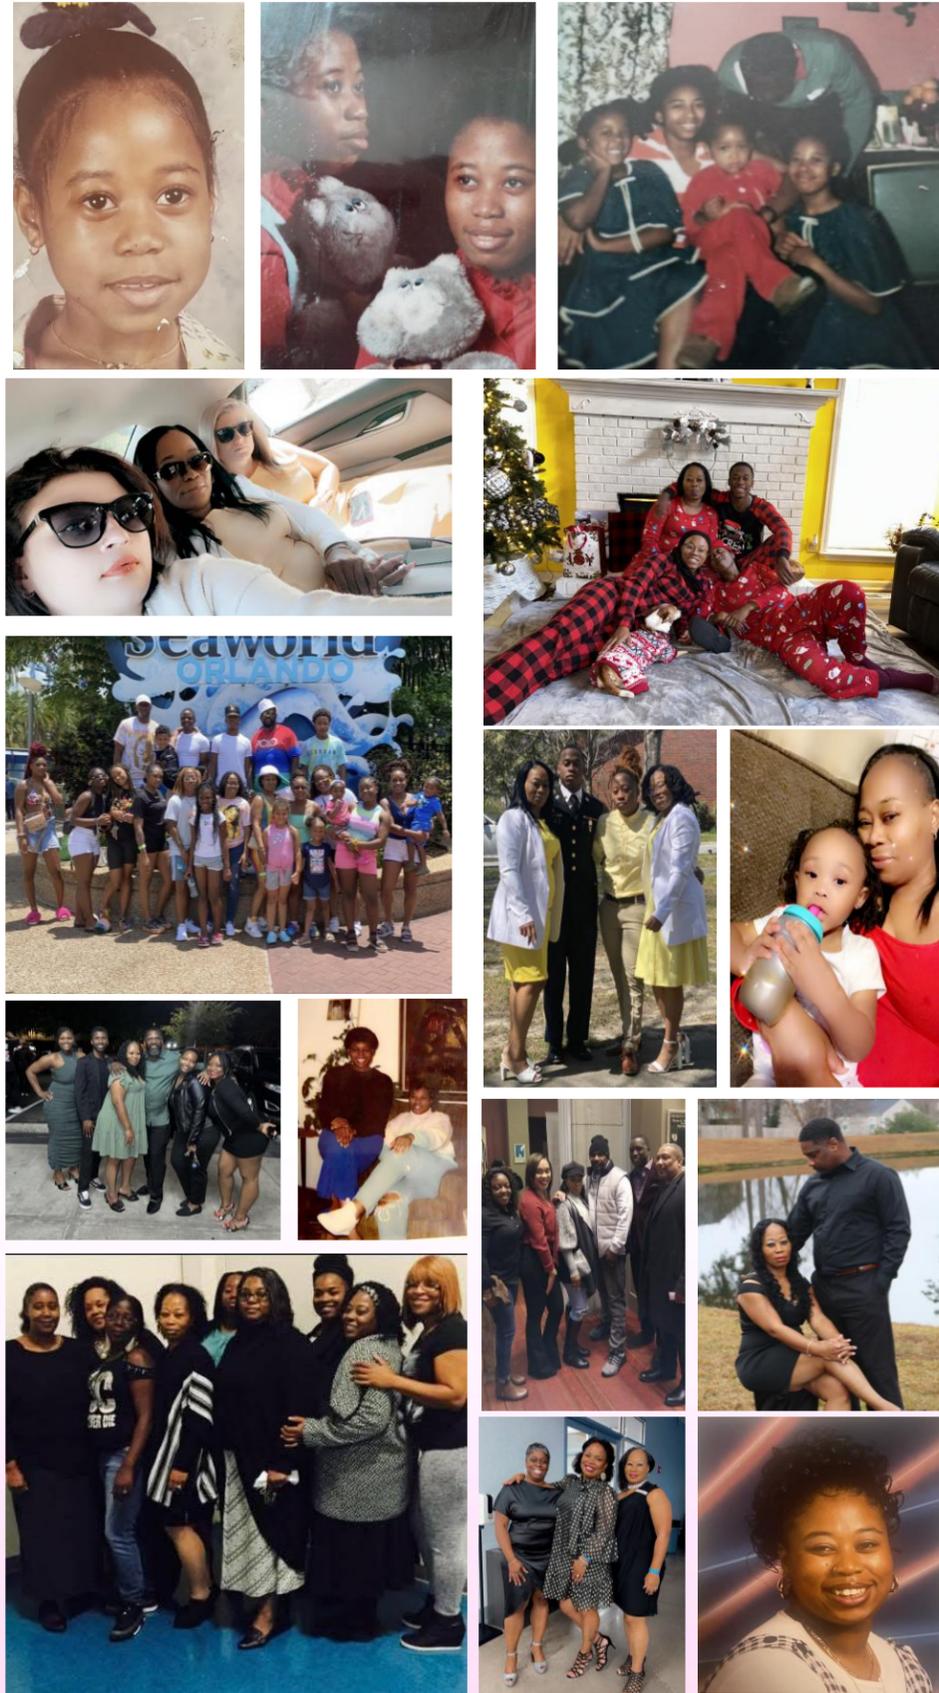

She leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and dedication to her family. Lynn was the cherished wife of Glenn Figgures for seven wonderful years and a devoted mother to her three children, Timara Council of Columbia, SC, Timpsett (Jaquaez) Bryant of Columbia, SC, and Timothyus (Jontaiza) Council Jr. of Cameron, NC; she was a devoted grandmother to Keleah Council of Cameron, NC; her love extended to her stepchildren, Shardai Figgures, Glennlyn Figgures, and Hayden Bryant of Columbia, SC, Dominique Clotter of Ellenwood, GA, Tiyon Ritter, Daniel Mack, and Messiah Figgures, of Columbia, Orangeburg, and Sumter, SC, respectively. She was a sister to one of six siblings to Marcell Taylor of Columbia, SC, Princess Bethea of Benton Harbor, MI, Marie (Arthur) Kelly of Benton Harbor, MI, Danelle (Marshall) Hayes of Buchanan, MI, Deleisha Williams of Kentwood, MI, and Letoya Williams of Fayetteville, NC, and Cass Bethea.

Lynn's heart was also filled with pride and affection for her three godchildren: Danaiya Richardson, Kyli Cornish, and Kruz Cornish of Columbia, SC. and she leaves behind an enduring legacy of love and care for her family.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her grandparents, George Taylor and Josephine Taylor; one brother, Donnie Bethea, Jr.; and her godchild, Kaleah Cornish.

Lynn, you will always be loved, remembered, and missed. May you rest in peace, surrounded by love and light.
