

Rejoice

Let not your heart be troubled
Nor overcome by fear,
For even in the time of death
Our Lord is always there.

I lived my life before you.
In faith, I followed God.
I leave this life believing
I'm safe beneath His blood.

I've fought the fight of faith,
Overshadowed by His grace.
All this I did so gladly,
Just to see Him face to face.

Grieve not that I am going;
Rejoice that I can go
And turn your face toward Jesus,
His Love He will bestow.

I leave you with my blessings,
That you will ever know,
My love is ever with you,
Wherever you may go.

I now await your coming,
Where the victory song is heard.
To see the glory of our Lord,
As told us in His Word.

So weep not at my passing,
Rejoice, I say, Rejoice.
Let it be a time of gladness;
Rejoice, Rejoice, Rejoice.

Obituary of Elder Christine Ferguson Mayers

Elder Christine Ferguson Mayers, beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend, departed this earthly life on Sunday, September 7, 2025. Christine was born on September 30, 1951, at Fort Jackson, SC. She was the beloved daughter of the late Leon C. and Juanita P. Ferguson.

Christine was a graduate of Orangeburg High School in Orangeburg, SC. She received her associate's degree in business from Orangeburg Technical College, her bachelor's degree in Applied Professional Sciences from the University of South Carolina, and a Master of Arts in Human Services with a focus on Christian Counseling from Liberty University. She served as an Administrative Coordinator/Information Resource Coordinator with SCDHEC for twenty years until her retirement in 2005.

On December 6, 1969, she married Lealather Mayers, II. Together, they made their home in Orangeburg, SC, until relocating to Columbia, SC, in 1992, raising four children, Verna, Lealather Mayers, III, Michelle, and Christopher.

Christine was a dedicated member of Perfecting Faith Church in Blythewood, SC, where she served faithfully as the Church Administrator until her relocation back to Orangeburg in 2017. She then became a faithful member of Club Christ Ministries, where she was ordained as an Elder in 2016. She founded No More Walls Ministry in 2014, which was dedicated to sharing the Word of God with all people—regardless of background, culture, or circumstance—empowering individuals to experience freedom, healing, and unity in Christ.

Christine's bright smile, genuine warmth, and kind spirit were felt by all who crossed her path. She was a shining star who found joy in inspiring and uplifting others. She never met a stranger and shared her love of Jesus with everyone she encountered. She was a lady of great faith; she enjoyed shopping, traveling, and caring for others, but most of all she enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her husband of forty-six years, Lealather II. She will forever be remembered and cherished by her children, Verna (Olawale) Mayers-Fakunle of Columbia, SC, Lealather Mayers III of Columbia, SC, Michelle Mayers of Orangeburg, SC, and Christopher Mayers of Orangeburg, SC; her sisters, Juanita "Secuma" Romana of West Palm Beach, FL and Cynthia (Ted) Geiger of West Palm Beach, FL; brother, J. Mauri Hamilton, Sr., of Hampton, VA; her ten adored grandchildren, LeShay C. Mayers, Caleb Torres, Domevlo Mayers, Bryson Miller, Bryce Reed, Brynna Miller, Mia Barnett, Kaylea Mayers, Christian Mayers, and Cameron Mayers and four great grandchildren; three loving sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.
