I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-

God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary of Mrs. Patsy Elaine Rumph

Mrs. Patsy Elaine Rumph was born on September 26, 1941, in Lexington, South Carolina. She was the youngest child of the late Josephin Glenn and Dr. Glenn. She departed this life on Saturday, September 13, 2025.

Mrs. Rumph was educated in the public schools of South Carolina and was a graduate of Lakeview High School. After high school, she became employed with the State Hospital, retiring after 53 years of dedicated service.

At an early age, Patsy dedicated her life to Christ and became a member of Turner Memorial A.M.E. Church. At Turner Memorial A.M.E. Church, Patsy was a dedicated member of the Usher Board.

In her spare time, Patsy loved to play cards and enjoying a cold Pepsi.

In addition to her parents, Patsy was preceded in death by her husband, T.K. Rumph and her only son, Dewayne Rumph; and all of her siblings, True Della Blassingale, Christine Hatten, Evelyn Ashford, Patsy E. Rumph, James Glenn, and Annie Glenn.

Mrs. Patsy Elaine Rumph leaves to mourn her passing and to cherish her precious memory: her loving niece, Naudia Ashford; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom loved and will miss her dearly.
