

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little - but not too long, and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, miss me - but let me go

Obituary of Ms. Paulette Green

Ms. Paulette Green was born on August 1, 1954, in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late David Rose and Ella Mae Green. She departed this life on Tuesday, September 30, 2025

Ms. Green began her education in the public schools of Orangeburg County, South Carolina, and later Richland County, South Carolina. She left school to raise her family, but later returned to finish her education, in which she received a high school diploma from C. A. Johnson High School. She was an employee of Palmetto Health Richland for over 30 years, where she served as a Sterile Prep Technician until she retired in 2014.

After retiring, she enjoyed traveling and spending time with family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, David Rose and Ella Mae Green; a brother, Randolph Rose; sisters, Mary Ann Allen and Olivia Rose

Ms. Paulette Green leaves to mourn her passing: sons, Neco (Lisa) Green and Corey Green; a daughter, Sheila Green; brothers, Donnie Rose; sisters, Barbara Fields, Patrica (Clarence) Casteal, Marcella (James) Matthews, Myra Rose; Six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; nieces; nephews; great-nieces; and many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
