

Obituary

Mr. Isaiah Peterson was born in Florence, South Carolina on May 16, 1926. He was the son of the late Melvin and Mattie Peterson. God called Isaiah home on Tuesday afternoon, October 28, 2025, at the Medical University of South Carolina.

Mr. Peterson was educated in the public schools of Darlington, South Carolina and was formerly employed at Pacific Mills for more than 40 years, missing only one day of work.

Mr. Peterson accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age, and fellowshipped at Clement Road Church of God, Columbia, South Carolina. As a devoted and faithful member of Clement Road Church of God, he served as Superintendent of the Sunday School, Deacon, and was a member of the Usher Board.

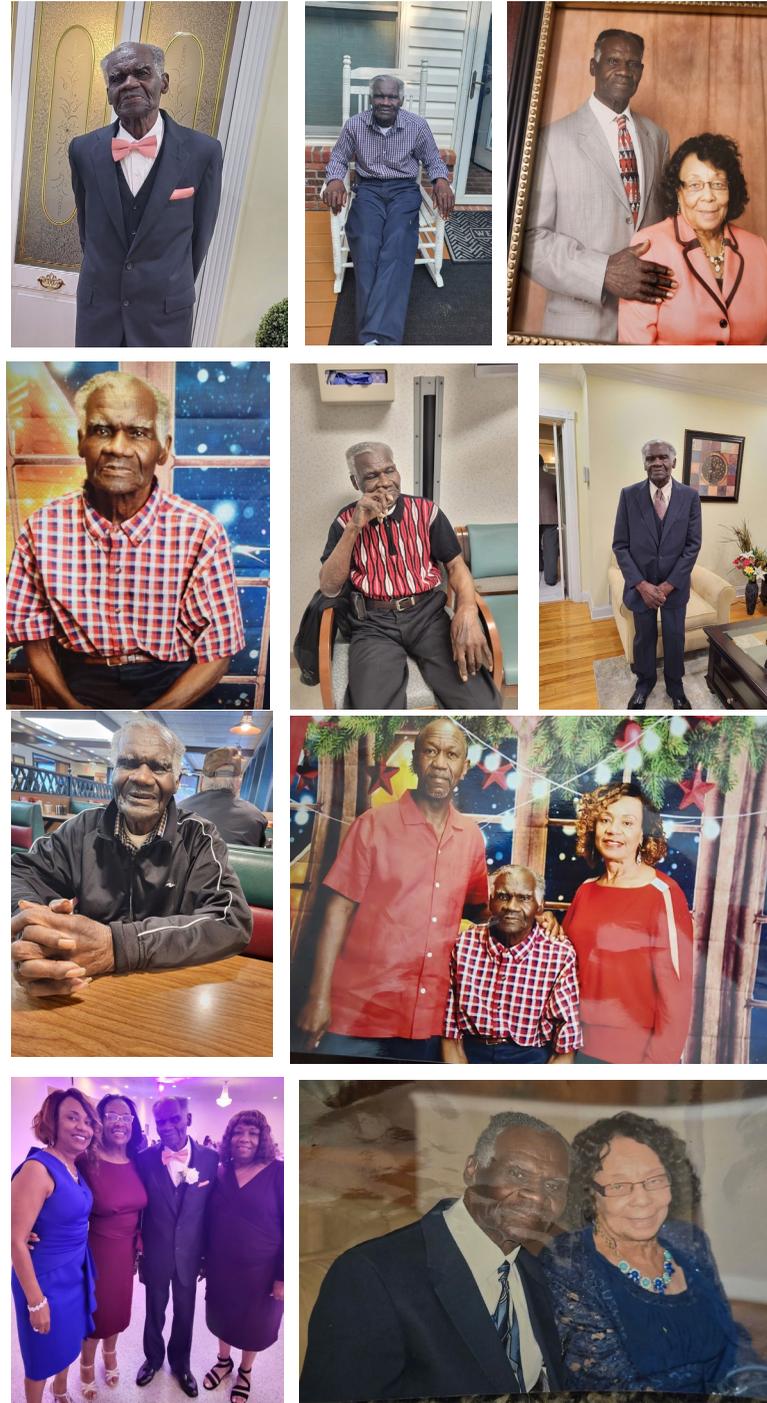

He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, attending church and fellowshipping with his church family.

In 1948, Isaiah was joined in holy wedlock to the love of his life, the late Effie Mae Peterson. The couple enjoyed 68 years of marriage. To this loving union four children were born.

In addition to his parents and wife, Isaiah was preceded in death by his son, Tommy; sisters, Lenet, Edell, and Jessie Mae; brothers, James and Riley.

Mr. Isaiah Peterson's memories will be cherished by his loving daughters, Rosa L. Reese (Herb), Sandra E. Wesley (Ervin), and Mellis J. Williams (Emanuel), all of Columbia, SC; sisters, Mae A. Rankin, of Hampton, VA; sister-in-law, Jerlene Lee (Herbert), of Lamar, SC; brother-in-law, Maxie Davis (Lillian), of Baltimore, MD; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.
