

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee—
God wanted me now; He set me free.

OBITUARY

Tommy Charles Harrison Jr. was born to Bettye L. Robbins and Tommy C. Harrison. Following their separation, Tommy was lovingly raised by Allen Robbins, who became a bonus father to him. Tommy was born in Columbia, SC, on November 7, 1965, and graduated from C.A. Johnson High School in 1984.

He was a one-of-a-kind groomer with many other gifts and talents, working between Orangeburg and Columbia, SC. Tommy's legacy lives on in the hearts of many who loved and knew him. He departed this life on October 6, 2025, in Albuquerque, NM.

Tommy was preceded in death by his parents, Bettye L. Robbins and Tommy C. Harrison, his father Allen Robbins, and his brother Charles Mitchell Harrison.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory Annette Harrison of Orangeburg, SC; two loving children, Jernest Harrison and Mya Harrison of Orangeburg, SC; loving godchild, Aretha Love of Orangeburg, SC; two grandchildren, Messiah Harrison and Omari Fogle of Orangeburg, SC; three siblings, Mardie (Sheran) Harrison of Columbia, SC, Tara Harrison and Jonathan Harrison of Columbia, MS; and a host of other relatives and friends who join the family in grieving his loss while celebrating his eternal homegoing.
