

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary of Ms. Edna Roseborough Gibbs

Ms. Edna Roseborough Gibbs, daughter of the late Moses Roseborough and Mary Jane Samuel was born on July 8, 1942, in Pontiac, South Carolina.

She attended the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. At an early age, she professed her faith in Jesus Christ and joined her family church, Jacob Mission A.M.E. Church, in Elgin, SC. She was re-baptized in the year 2012 as a faithful member.

She was an active and loving mother, sister, aunt and friend to everyone who knew her, or any person that met her. Edna was very outspoken, funny, and was very generous. As a result of her generous spirit, she fed anyone that wanted a meal, cooked for gatherings by request, housed those that needed a place to lay their head, gave honest advice and made many laugh by her joking personality. Edna was loved by many. She took pleasure in cooking, cleaning, playing spades, dancing, playing bingo and joking with everyone.

She quietly and peacefully departed this life Sunday, November 2, 2025, with the surrounding warmth and love of her family members. Her favorite phrase was "Don't give me any darn flowers when I die, I want them while I'm living!"

Edna was preceded in death by many of her siblings, one grandson and two great-grandsons.

Her beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of her children: Diana R. Odom, Mack Gibbs, Jr., Tonnie (Willie Mae) Gibbs, Alberta Gibbs-Bray, and Sarah (Eugene) Gibbs Bell, all of Columbia, South Carolina; brothers, Newry (Helen) Roseborough; sisters, Wilbert Lene R. Keitt and Geraldine R. Taylor; 15 grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
