God Took Him to His Loving Home

God saw him getting tired, a cure was not to be.
He wrapped him in his loving arms and whispered
'Come with me.'

He suffered much in silence, his spirit did not bend.

He faced his pain with courage, until the very end.
He tried so hard to stay with us but his fight was not in vain, God took him to His loving home and freed him from the pain.

Obituary of Mr. Dennis Lee Haile

Mr. Dennis Lee Haile was born to Lester and Corene T. Haile on March 19, 1955, in Lancaster, South Carolina. He was one of six children born of his parents' union. Dennis transitioned from earth to heaven on Monday, November 24, 2025.

Dennis was educated in the public school system of Tacoma, Washington. After returning to Columbia, South Carolina, he joined Bethlehem Baptist Church, in Columbia, South Carolina, and made Columbia his home.

Dennis enjoyed playing basketball and karate and was an avid sports fan. He was employed with the South Carolina Department of Mental Health, from which he retired.

He was preceded in death by his parents, the late Lester and Corene Haile and his brother, Larry B. Haile.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two children: his sons, Jabari Haile and Jamere Haile, both of Columbia, South Carolina; four grandchildren, Jamere Haile, Jr., Logan Jakyhia Haile, Kameron Jamar Haile, and Ja'Mia Denise Haile; one sister, Rose M. (Jerry) Green of Tacoma, Washington; three brothers, Anthony (Amiyah) Haile, Nathan Haile, and Rickey (Leonetta) Haile; sister-in-law, Dorothy Haile, all of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
