God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Mrs. Jessie Pearlene Jones, affectionately known as “Pearlene,” was born on December 12, 1952, in Lexington County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Belton and Varnise Niles. On November 21, 2025, she peacefully departed this life at Lexington Medical Center, in Lexington, South Carolina.

Pearlene was a faithful member of Refuge Temple, where she served faithfully with the Usher Ministry until her health declined. She carried out her duties with grace and humility that blessed all whom she encountered.

A dedicated worker, Pearlene retired from Lexington Medical Center after many years of service as a Dietary Clerk, where she was known for her kindness, reliability, and gentle spirit.

Pearlene was a quiet natured woman, who loved God and her family. Her hands stayed busy. She found joy in cooking, sewing, and traveling, and she poured love into everything she created. Her presence brought comfort and peace into every room she entered.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Jones.

Those left to cherish her precious memory are: her sons, Shun Terrell Niles (Teresa), Joshua Brown, and Brinton Brown; bonus children, Carlester (Tashia) Jones, Chandra (Eugene) Middleton, Pamela Watson, Vanessa Williams, and Teresa Robinson; a special great-niece, Katelyn Jones; two sisters, Felicia (Charles) Jones, and Jackie Niles; two brothers, Willie Earl (Regina) Niles and Willie Clay Niles; two grandchildren, Kiante (Kayla) Curenton and Terrence (Dysheka) Curenton; four great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all who loved her dearly.

Though she will be greatly missed, her legacy of love, faith, and strength will live on in all who knew her.
