

In Our Hearts

We thought of you today,
But that was nothing new,
We thought about you
yesterday,
And days before that too,
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name,
Now all we have are memories,
And your pictures in a frame,
Your memories are our keepsake,
Which with we'll never part,
God has you in his keeping,
We have you in our hearts

We love you Aunty La'Curia,
Samaria, Syteria

Obituary

Ms. Izetta Tracey LaRoy was born on November 23, 1970, to Samuel Wright Jr. and Ivy Williams at Albert Einstein College of Medicine in the Bronx, New York. She departed this life on November 16, 2025, at Jackson South Hospital in Miami, Florida.

Izetta was known for her affectionate smile and unique laugh, which could light up any room she entered. In 1987, she moved to Cayce, South Carolina, where she attended Brooklyn Cayce High School and graduated in 1989. She went on to earn an Associate of Arts degree in Business and Administration in 2007, followed by a bachelor's degree in business administration management in 2022.

Izetta was a faithful member of Brookland Baptist Church, where she had been devoted for many years. Her faith guided her life, her decisions, and the way she loved and cared for others. She sang with the Charles B. Jackson Singers Choir (CBJS) and found great joy in lifting her voice in praise. Even after relocating to Miami, Florida, Izetta remained a committed online member, continuing to worship and stay connected to her church family.

Her career began in Parks and Tourism, leading her to serve at the Governor's Office for many years. In 2010, Izetta relocated to South Florida to pursue a career in leasing management. Her leadership and professionalism had a significant impact on the housing and leasing community. TRG Management Company welcomed her as Property Manager, and she later joined HTG in September 2019, where she managed their Senior Community property for several years. Her skills and dedication earned her the role of dual Manager for multiple properties, including the newly constructed Naranja Grand 1 and Naranja Grand 2 senior communities. Izetta was deeply loved and admired by her residents and the community.

Izetta was preceded in death by her grandparents Andrew Anderson, Lizzie Williams, Samuel Wright Sr., and Victoria Wright Sr.; her Aunt Sallie Singleton; Uncle Clyde Williams Jr.; and her cherished fur babies, Yogi and Georgie.

She is survived by her father, Samuel (Loretta) Wright Jr. of Jersey City; her mother, Ivy Williams of South Florida; her beloved brothers, Samuel Williams of Columbia, S.C., Lance Wheeler and Ishmael Jeffries both of New Jersey; her beloved sisters, LaVonya Hedgepeth of Alaska, Shavon Wiggins of New Jersey, Kimberly Smith of South Carolina; six aunts, Deloris Black, Reverend Marilyn (Irvin) McKinley, Yvonne Speaks all of Charleston, S.C.; Hattie Burley of Gaston, S.C., Jackie Wheeling of South Florida, and Loretta Williams of New York; five uncles, Eddie Wright, Freddie Wright, Vincent (Jennifer) Wright, all of Charleston, S.C., Joe (Mabel) Williams of Pelion, S.C.; and Raymond Williams of New York; goddaughter, Kenyatta Enevelyn Jeffcoat; godson, Jamaree Jeffcoat. Additionally, she is remembered by a host of beautiful loving nieces, nephews, relatives, exceptional friends, and wonderful coworkers, all of whom she cherished dearly and who will forever hold her in their hearts.
