I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary of Mr. Juston Javon Harshaw

Mr. Juston Javon Harshaw was born on December 17, 1980, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of Dorothy Ann Mickens Harshaw and Houston Tex Harshaw. On Wednesday, December 3, 2025, Juston entered eternal rest at Atrium Health Mountain Island Emergency Department, in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Juston was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, where he attended Eau Claire High School. While at Eau Claire, he played the saxophone in the band. Years later, Juston relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina, becoming an independent contractor/entrepreneur.

Mr. Juston Javon Harshaw leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving parents, Houston, Sr. and Dorothy Harshaw; one sister, Sharrieta (Tina) Mickens; one brother, Houston (Daniella) Harshaw, Jr.; nephews, Devonte (Mary Rose) Mickens, Devonye (Raigan) Mickens, Rashard Harshaw, and Trenton Plamadon; his significant other, Precious Abrams (Bryan, Brendon, and Geisha); a host of aunts, uncles, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
