In Loving Memory

I met you through the entertainment life, Where passion turns strangers into family. Somewhere along the way, You became more than a friend— You became my brother. I watched you walk through pain and suffering, Carrying the weight of sickness few could see. Yet you never let it define you. You fought, you pushed forward, And you showed strength even on the hardest days. You had a passion for the mic, A voice that commanded the room and connected us all. You will forever be my favorite host, Sharing your gift with heart, pride, and purpose. Your resilience inspired us, Your presence lifted us, And your legacy will live on In every life you touched along the way.

Rest now, my brother. Your fight is over, But your memory will never fade.
- DMOORER
