Ms. Ann Louise McDaniel

Ms. Ann Louise McDaniel was born January 5, 1949, in Blythewood, South Carolina. She was the eldest of four children born to the late Frances McDaniel Holmes. She departed this earthly life on Friday, January 2, 2026, at Forest Acres Post Acute Nursing Home.

She was educated in the segregated Bethel Elementary and High School, in Blythewood, South Carolina. Ann was employed with the SCDMH Midlands Center, where she retired after many years of dedicated service. She was an avid BINGO player and loved watching old western movies.

At an early age, Ann accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and personal Savior, was baptized, and became a member of Bethel Baptist Church.

Those left to cherish Ann's precious memories: one sister, Margaret Holmes, of Charlotte, NC; two brothers, Edward (Betty) Holmes, of Columbia, SC and Frank (Linda) Holmes, of Corpus Christi, TX; five nephews, Alfred Homes, Russel Taylor both of Charlotte, NC, Xavier Taylor of Dallas, TX, Frank Holmes and Jeremy Holmes, both of Columbia, SC; four nieces, Swandena Green, Tawana Holmes, Tequila Jones, all of Columbia, SC, and Anetria Harding of Charlotte, NC.

Though she is no longer with us in the physical, her gentle spirit will always be etched in the lives she touched.

If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear,
Though you may not understand why I'm
no longer here,
Remember my spirit, that's the real me.
I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my savior's hand.
The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promise Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets,
I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion, someday I will meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.
So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!
