

Tribute

My love, the day has come for me to say goodbye.
My love, the day has come with tears I know I'll surely cry.
My love, the day has come because God said, "it's time to come home."
My love the day has come for God said, "my son, job well done."
My love, the day has come for no more pain you'll have to bear.
My love the day has come for you to take your rest up there.
My love, the day will come when we shall meet again.
So, for now my love, I'll say goodbye.
I'm forever your wife and you're forever my best friend.
I'll love and cherish you forever.

Tribute

When the tree leaves dance, one shall find flames,
The fire's shadow will illuminate the village, and once once again, Tree leaves shall bud anew.

Obituary of Mr. David Wayne Moultrie

Mr. David Wayne Moultrie, affectionately known as “Moot,” was born on August 29, 1964, in Walterboro, South Carolina to the late Henry L. Moultrie and the late Clara R. Moultrie. He departed this life on Monday, January 12, 2026, at Lexington Medical Center, in West Columbia, South Carolina.

David was educated in the public schools of Colleton County, South Carolina and graduated from Walterboro High School. He later attended Morris College, Sumter, South Carolina, where he earned his bachelor’s degree. David played catcher on the baseball team and was the stats keeper for the basketball team. He was loved by so many people. David had a special and unique bond with his sister, Veronica. Even in death, that bond will never be broken. She and his brother Donald would always call to make sure that he was alright and to see if he needed anything.

His career was in retail management, where he worked until he retired due to his failing health. David enjoyed watching sports, listening to music and spending time with his family. He always looked forward to seeing his grandchildren. David also enjoyed his group chats with his hometown and college brothers. They made the past few years so much better for him. Their love, prayers, and support gave him strength to continue. Most of all, David’s faith in God is what kept him getting up every day to continue to fight until he could no longer.

In addition to his parents, David was preceded in death by his brother, Henry Moultrie, Jr. and nephew, Karron Moultrie.

Mr. David Wayne Moultrie leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Fredrena Bell-Moultrie; two sons, Christopher Marcus Moultrie of Columbia, SC and Christophe (Chanti) Bell, Jr. of Kannapolis, NC; sister, Veronica Moultrie, of Decatur, GA; brother, Donald (Irene) Moultrie, of Columbia, SC; three grandchildren, Tiffany Moultrie, of Durham, NC, Eden Grace and Jaxton Luke Bell, both of Kannapolis, NC; great-nephew, Izaiah Moultrie, of Mirama, FL; three nieces, Matoya Moultrie, Christina Harrison, and Amanda Anderson, all of Columbia, SC; mother-in-law, Fannie R. Anderson; two sisters-in-law, Vanessa Stevenson and Yolanda Anderson, all of Columbia, SC; a special family member, Robert Hector, of Columbia, SC; a host of other loving family members, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
