

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary of Mrs. Eileen Moore Patterson

Mrs. Eileen Moore Patterson was born on August 1, 1967, in Benton Harbor, Michigan. She was the ninth of ten children born to Eva Walker Moore and James Moore. She peacefully departed this life on Sunday, January 4, 2026.

Eileen was a devoted wife and mother, cherishing her husband, Michael Patterson, and her daughters, Ashley Moore and Michelle Patterson. Her love extended far beyond her immediate family—she embraced many as her own, becoming a mother figure to numerous sons and daughters who were drawn to her warmth and kindness.

Before relocating to Georgia, Eileen was a faithful member of Tabernacle Church of God in Christ in Benton Harbor, Michigan. Her love for singing and cooking brought joy to those around her and became two of the many ways she expressed her generous spirit.

She was preceded in death by her father, James Moore, and her brothers, Ray Moore and Ernest Moore.

Eileen leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Michael Patterson; her daughters, Ashley Moore and Michelle Patterson; her goddaughter, Christian Sharper; her grandsons, Malakai Moore and Derrell Moore, and her granddaughter, Diamond Moore. She is also survived by her sisters, Melissa Moore, Bernita Hamilton, and Wanda Moore; her brothers, Gregory Moore, Jimmy Moore, and Charles Moore; along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and devoted friends, all who knew her will miss her deeply.
