

A Celebration of Life

Every life leaves an unforgettable mark upon the world, and it is with deepest respect and heartfelt sorrow that we gather in remembrance of one whose presence warmed the hearts of many they encountered. An obituary is not only a record of passing, but a celebration of a journey --tapestry woven of moments; ordinary and extraordinary moments alike, of love, laughter, and learning, of hopes realized and unfulfilled dreams.

Sister Nazirah D. Gale Muhammad was the fourth child, born January 21, 1987, in Columbia, South Carolina. She returned to Allah on Tuesday, January 27, 2026, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Sister Nazirah graduated from A.C. Flora High School in 2005. She worked at several retail stores, hotels and did private duty nursing as she really enjoyed being around and caring for people. One of her most recent jobs was at Columbia Airport performing many different duties. Although she was born in Nation of Islam at the tender age of 18, she accepted her own and officially registered in the Nation. She had a beautiful spirit and always had a beautiful smile regarding what may have been going on with or around her.

Sister Nazirah was preceded in death by her brother, Christopher DeWayne Gale. She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, her rock, her #1 – Diana Gale Muhammad; her father, Frederick A. Gale, two sons, Joshua James and Samir Christopher Damon Gale, one beloved daughter, Zakiyah D. Gale; two sisters, Samantha El-Amin (Haziq) and Jacqueline Gale; two brothers, Samuel Gale (Yvonne) and Emmanuel Damon Gale (Thelawn “Lonnie”); three nieces, Ebony White-Lee (Brian), Alexis Muhammad Sabet (Razan) and Samiyah Gale; four nephews, Michael Jerrel Chambers, Nazih Gale, Basir Gale, Zaeem Gale; 4 great nieces, Bria, Kailyn, Samirah and Emoni; three great nephews, Bryson, Armon and Raza; five bonus sisters, Michelle, Catherine, Monica, Madison and Jessica; one bonus brother, William, Jr.; two aunts, Earnestine Muhammad and Lucille Aquil; godmother, Ella Spane; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends, all who loved and will miss her dearly.

She loved her children more than words can express. They meant the world to her, and she means the world to them. She was determined to show Josh that blood does not make one family but it's love; Samir, her miracle child, taught her about motherhood and Zakiyah, “Little Nazirah” kept her on her toes, which could be why Zakiyah walks on her toes today. But it truly goes without saying, they made her life complete.

As we say farewell, we remember not only a life concluded, but we want to thank Allah (God) for the gift that continues in the hearts and minds of all who were privileged to know her. Her passing leaves a void that can never be filled, but the legacy of her kindness, strength and humor will continue to guide us. We are better people for having loved her.

In the days to come, may we cherish the memories we have and reflect on the kindness and generosity she embodied, and may we find comfort in knowing that, though gone from sight, she is ever present in our hearts.

BENEFICIENT, THE MERCIFUL

“Of the believers are men who are true to the covenant they made with Allah; so of them is he who has accomplished his vow, and of them is he who yet
waits, and they have not changed in the least.”

– Holy Qur’an 33:23

The family of Sister Nazirah Gale Muhammad is deeply appreciative and express their heartfelt gratitude for the tremendous outpouring of love, support, expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness from The Nation of Islam, loved ones and friends. May Allah bless each of you.
