

Obituary

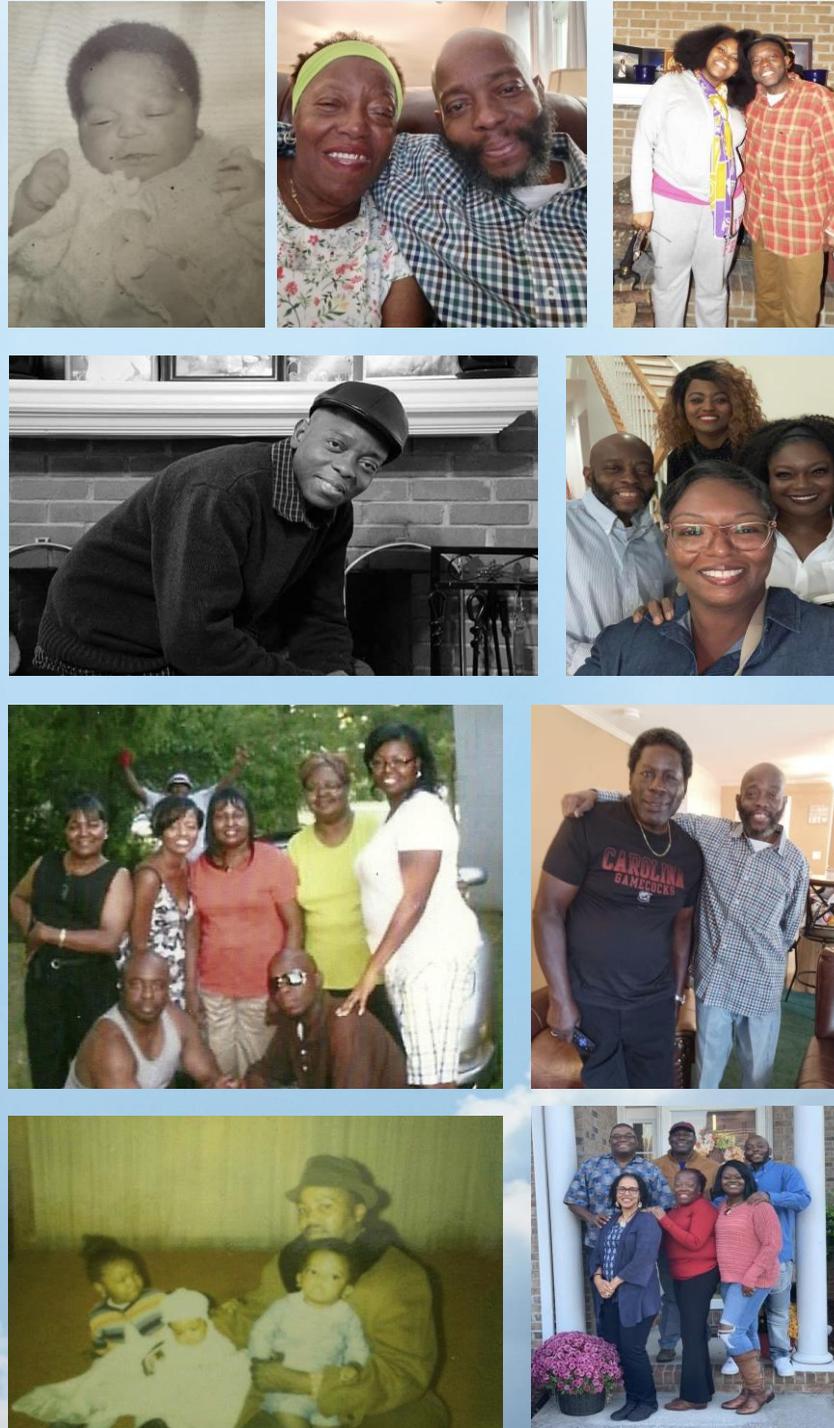

Mr. Sebastian Lee Plair, a loving father, son, brother affectionally known as “Main,” was born on December 12, 1972, to Gwendolyn Portee and the late George Plair, Jr. in Columbia, SC. He transitioned and went to be with the Lord on January 22, 2026, at the age of 53.

“Main” was educated in the public schools of Richland County School District One. Some of his favorite childhood memories include riding his big wheel, cat walking his BMX bike, skating in front of his cousins’ house, riding his bike to Earlewood Park and Hyatt Park, playing kickball, and shooting marbles.

In his teenage years he loved barbering and had a fondness for music and discography. As an adult, “Main” loved working at Jiffy Lube, True Green Chem Lawn, Michelin Tires, and DHL. He took great joy in cooking and hosted Facebook live cooking tutorials. “Main” was the best storyteller and would always make you laugh. He was a die-hard Carolina Gamecocks and Dallas Cowboy fan. To know “Main” was to love him. He had a big heart and big smile and connected with everyone. “Main” was baptized at St. Peter Baptist Church in Irmo, SC.

“Main” is survived by his mother, Gwendolyn Portee; step-father, Larry Portee; daughter, Quintera Plair; sisters, Darlene Plair, Chanda Plair, Lestary Plair, Deborah Plair, Patricia Plair-Jackson, and Lorraine Plair-Hopkins (Jessie); a brother, Tony M. Plair; a step-brother, Wayne Dunbar (Krista); aunt, Elmon Boyd, great-aunt, Marian Ashford; nieces, Porsche Jones, Domonique Plair, and Faith Medford; nephew, Thomas D. White (Anisha); a host of other nieces, nephews, extended family and friends, all of whom will dearly miss him.

MINISTER DAVID JOHNSON, JR.
-OFFICIATING-

God Called You Home,
Dear Son,

Your work on earth is complete.
A life so deeply cherished,
A love so pure and sweet.
Though our hearts ache with loss,
And tears so freely fall,
We take comfort in knowing
God's grace has covered all.
Your soul is now at peace,
Free from sorrow, free from pain,
Resting in His presence
Until we meet again.
We trust His promise.
This parting is not the end.
For in His perfect timing,
Our paths will meet again.
Rest now in perfect love,
Safe within His care.
Until that blessed morning
When heaven reunites us there.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Sebastian Lee Plair, would like to thank each of you for your love,
