

Safely Home

by Author Unknown

I am home in heaven, dear ones.
Oh, so happy and so bright.
There is a perfect joy and beauty
in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief are over,
every restless tossing passed.
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in heaven at last.
Did you wonder why I so calmly
trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illuminated
Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me
in the way so hard to tread.
And with Jesus' arm to lean on could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely,
for I love you dearly still.
Try to look beyond death's shadows.
Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand.
Do it now, while life remaineth;
you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home.
Oh, the rapture of that meeting.
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Mrs. Geraldine Wilson Williams

Mrs. Geraldine Wilson Williams, affectionately called, “GiGi,” was born August 31, 1952, in Columbia, South Carolina, to the late Isaac and Ida Mae Wilson. On Saturday, January 31, 2026, she peacefully transitioned to be with our Heavenly Father, leaving behind a legacy of lasting impact on all who knew and loved her.

After graduating from Columbia High School in 1973, she enlisted in the United States Air Force – a reflection of her strength and courage. The same drive that led her to serve her country followed her throughout life, as she embraced her role as a business-woman who understood the value of hard work, independence and building a meaningful foundation. Still, it was her spirit that truly set her apart.

Above all, Geraldine was a woman of faith who believed in the power of prayer. A woman of presence whose sense of style was timeless. A woman of wisdom whose guidance was a gift.

She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Joseph Williams; her loving son, Yaside Jamaan; her beautiful daughters, Kendia Larkee’, Nydra Nicole, and Ikeya Cassandra; her siblings, Isaac and Ann; ten beloved grandchildren whom she loved dearly, Khemari (Sirena), Sharlemagne (Taquann), Jada, Keymani, Ehvori, Kaea, Miyah, Reign, Yvonne, and Tariq; five great-grandchildren; many other family and friends, who will forever hold her in their hearts.

Her legacy lives on in the faith she instilled, the strength she modeled, and the love she gave so freely to others. She will truly be missed.
