

To Our Father.

When the days grew long and hard,
you found a way to turn them toward the light.
You had a way of reminding us that life
was meant to be lived fully, loudly, joyfully.

Laughter echoing through the house,
and love woven into every ordinary day.
You brought joy wherever you went.
Not the small kind, but the kind that stays.
The kind that teaches hearts how to keep smiling
even after the moment has passed.

We hear you still in the jokes we repeat, in the laughter that sneaks in during difficult days, in the quiet reminder to find the bright side.

You taught us that.
And though we miss you more than words can hold, your spirit walks beside us in every smile we share.

We will carry your memory
like a lantern in our hearts, keeping its light alive until the day we meet again.

With all our love,
Your Children

Remembrance of Life

Thaddeus Gerard Brown, age 55, was born on December 15, 1970, in Salisbury, North Carolina. He passed away leaving behind a legacy of dedication to family, community, and his passion for technology.

Thaddeus was the beloved son of Price Brown and Vivan Thompson. He grew up surrounded by the love of his family and shared close bonds with his siblings, maintaining strong family ties throughout his life. Thaddeus attended the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. Where he pledged Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. It was during his time there he met the love of his life, Teresa, who would later become his devoted wife.

He later attended Limestone College where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science. During his college years, Thaddeus built lifelong friendships and embraced the values of brotherhood, leadership and service. Professionally, Thaddeus built a respected career in Information Technology, working both as an IT professional and later as a manager. Above all else, Thaddeus was a devoted husband and father and took great pride in raising six children and guiding them with wisdom, patience, and love.

Thaddeus will be remembered for his intelligence, his quiet strength and most importantly his unwavering commitment to his family. His legacy lives on through the lives he helped shape and the love he shared.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Vernon Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Dr. Teresa R. Brown; a daughter, Destiny Riley; sons, Trajan Brown , Terrence (Britney) Brown, Thaddeus Brown Jr. and Shamari (Ashley) Pratt; special nephew, Brandon (Amy) Carmichael; parents, Price (Costella)Brown and Vivian (Harold) Davis; siblings, Vincent(Rashae) Brown, Phyllis (Del) Quammie, LaShae Davis and Rodney Davis; along with a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, extended family members and friends whose lives he touched.

He will be deeply missed but forever remembered.
