Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds*

The Family's Expression of Gratitude

The family of Mrs. Eugenia Scott Dixon is grateful for all you have done to comfort our hearts, to share our sorrow, and to strengthen our hope in the Resurrection. Your faith has reinforced our faith, your hope has confirmed our hope, and your love has helped to heal our hearts. You have lifted our spirits toward the hills from whence cometh our help. You were there with kindness and sympathy to offer us comfort when we were struggling. It's family and friends like you that make us realize how lucky we are. Thank you!

Reflections of Life

*“Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.”
-Proverbs 31:31*

In the early morning hours of March 17, 2026, God, in His infinite wisdom dispatched His angels and graciously ushered Mrs. Eugenia “Jean” Scott Dixon into the presence of her Heavenly Father.

Eugenia, affectionately known as “Aunt Jean,” was born on July 4, 1937, in Elgin, South Carolina to the late George W. Scott and Gertrude “Mama Susie” Bush Scott DeWalt. The second eldest of four daughters, she was educated in the schools of Kershaw and Richland Counties. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Johnny M. “JD” Dixon. Their union was blessed with eight children and three grandchildren (Tricey, Tara & Suzette) who were raised in the home.

She was a dedicated wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, sister, cousin and friend. Her house was always open and always welcoming to family. If you truly knew her, you know that she loved her family above all else. And one of her greatest joys was being able to love and spoil her grands and great grands. She was an excellent cook, a sharp dresser and was not afraid to cut a rug a time or two. Whenever she would hear Al Green’s, “Love & Happiness”, she was guaranteed to hit the dance floor. She also believed in self-care, she loved getting her nails done and, on most Fridays, you could find her getting her hair done and folding towels on her side job at Salon Chon. Moma/Aunt Jean was truly an exceptional woman of faith, love, and strength and she was indeed our “Queen Jean” who we will miss dearly.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George W. Scott and Gertrude “Mama Susie” Bush Scott DeWalt; her beloved husband, Johnny “JD” Dixon; four children, Ronnie Dixon, Charles Wesley Dixon, Gwendolyn L. Dixon, and Patricia A. Simons; one bonus son, Cecil Ray Dixon; her oldest great-granddaughter, Kelsie N. Bryant; her great-great granddaughter, Airest Barber; her oldest sister, Geneva “Judy” Peters; as well as a host of cherished family members who welcomed her home.

Those left to cherish, honor and carry out her legacy are, four children, Mr. John M. Dixon, Jr., Mrs. Valerie J. Barnes (Marcell), Mrs. Audrey M. DeLoach (Bernard), and Ms. Phyllis R. Dixon; twelve grandchildren, Mrs. Jeanna “Tricey” Dixon-McCray (Kelvin), Ms. Tara L. Jamison, Mr. Neal C. Simons (Claudia), Mr. Marcell Barnes, Jr., Ms. Suzette L. Jamison, Mrs. Jamie R. Dixon Porterfield (Travis), Ms. Kymberli M. Barnes, Mr. Travis J. Simons (Nina), Ms. Erin M. Barnes, Mr. Aubray B. DeLoach, Ms. Angelica J. DeLoach, and Ms. Lauren M. Simons; thirty-one great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren; two siblings, Mrs. Minnie Scott Griffin and Mrs. Georgia Mae Patterson; one aunt, Mrs. Juanita Boyd; one uncle, Mr. Arthur (Norbert) Bush; a host of other relatives and devoted friends, all of whom will lovingly cherish and miss her dearly.

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

Do not let your hearts be heavy, though tears may freely fall-

for love like hers was never meant to leave us at all.

It lingers in the quiet moments, in the laughter we still share, in every gentle memory

that reminds us she is there.

She was more than just a presence-she was love in its

purest form,

a steady light within our lives, a shelter through every storm.

And though we must release her now into God’s perfect care,

we find out strength in knowing she is still with us

everywhere. So we will carry her within us, in all we say and do,

until the day God calls us home and we are reunited too.

Until that day, we honor her-with every step we take...

for a love like Mrs. Eugenia Dixon’s (Moma, Granny,

Aunt Jean)
