

She was the quiet strength in every storm,

A gentle voice that made the world feel warm.

With hands that held both wisdom and grace,

*And love that time could never erase.
She taught us kindness in the simplest ways,*

In laughter shared and long, soft days.

In every story, in every prayer,

*We felt her love was always there.
Her smile could light the darkest night,*

Her presence made everything feel right.

A guiding star, both fierce and sweet,

*Her beautiful soul was one of a kind.
Though she has gone beyond our sight,*

Her love still shines, forever bright.

In every memory, she will remain,

*A soothing comfort through the pain.
We carry her with us, day by day,*

In all we do, in all we say.

For a grandmother's love will never end—

It lives in each heart she helped to mend.

Obituary of Mrs. Mary Ann Reese Lowman Jenkins

Mrs. Mary Ann Reese Lowman Jenkins was born on February 20, 1942, in Columbia (Richland County), South Carolina. She was the youngest child of the late Mary Jane Davis Reese and Henry Reese, Sr. She transitioned on Sunday, March 29, 2026.

Ms. Jenkins was educated in the public schools of Columbia (Richland County), South Carolina, and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School, class of 1960. She was employed by Richland School District One in the late 70s. She then went on to become an early childcare provider, from which she later retired.

Ms. Jenkins was baptized at an early age and joined the Antioch Baptist Church, in Columbia, South Carolina. She enjoyed traveling with her late husband, being with her family, and cooking.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Henry and Mary J. Reese; husbands, Johnny Lowman and Bennie E. Jenkins; children, Johnny Carnell and Jodie Lowman, and Janice Wilson; and siblings, seven (7) sisters and one (1) brother.

Mrs. Mary Ann Reese Lowman Jenkins leaves to mourn her passing: her children, Pamela Lowman and Vincent (Joanne) Lowman, of Hopkins, South Carolina; her eight grandchildren, Jade, Vincent, Keshia, Jamensia, Thaddeus, Kyle, Trent, and Omariea; her sister, Edna Delbridge; four great-grandchildren, Vincent, Jr., Victoria, Kyle Jr., and Kashmere Carnell; and a host of other loving nieces, nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
