

God Called You Home

God called your name so softly
That no one could hear.
And no one heard the footsteps
Of angels drawing near.
It broke our hearts to lose
you,
But you did not go alone.
For part of us went with
you,
The day God called you home.

Obituary of Mr. Rommie James McGee, Jr.

Mr. Rommie James McGee Jr. was born December 8, 1944, in Wlimington, North Carolina. He was the son of the late Rommie James McGee, Sr. and Mary Brown McGee. He departed this life on Thursday, March 26, 2026 at his home in Columbia, South Carolina, surrounded by family.

Mr. McGee was educated in the public schools of Wilmington, North Carolina. He was an owner/operator truck driver for Nilson Van Lines, from where he retired. Mr. McGee also served his country honorably in the United States Army. While serving, Mr. McGee earned the Purple Heart. In the community Mr. McGee served as the treasurer of the Laurel Hill Men's Club for many years.

Mr. McGee was a loving husband and loved his family. You would always find him working on cars or on the barbecue grill for his great cookouts. He was always there to lend a helping hand to those in need.

In addition to his parents, Mr. McGee was preseded in death by sister, Joyce Spicer Brown and a brother, Edward McGee.

Mr. Rommie James McGee leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Mildred Lindsay-McGee; a daughter, Renae Fortson of Atlanta, Georgia; son, Melvin McGee, of Atlanta, Georgia; two grandchildren who were raised in the home, Rodney Gallman, Jr. and Vandy Tyreek Williams, of both of Columbia, South Carolina; brother, George A. McGee, of Wilmington, North Carolina; sisters, Delores (Raynard) Jones, of Maryland, and Brenda Williams, of Wilmington, North Carolina; sisters-in-law, Mary (Rennie) Nelson and Amy Pratt; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
