

When tomorrow starts
without me, Please try to understand, That an angel
came and called my name
And took me by the hand.

I've found a place of peace and rest, Where
pain has slipped away,
And though you wish I could have stayed, It was simply not my day.

So hold me close within your heart, And let your love remain, For one day
we will meet again—
Where there is no more pain.

Obituary of Mrs. Beulah Faye Anderson

Mrs. Beulah Faye Anderson was born on Monday, January 28, 1957, in Hopkins, South Carolina, one of thirteen children born to the late Nick and Pauline Thomas. She peacefully departed on Thursday, March 26, 2026. She was baptized at an early age and later reaffirmed her faith through baptism again as she grew in her spiritual journey. She received her formal education in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and graduated from Lower Richland High School with the Class of 1975.

Throughout her life, Beulah was known for her dedication, talent, and strong work ethic. She was an amazing seamstress, gifted with both creativity and care in everything she made. She dedicated 34 years of service to the post office, where she worked faithfully until her retirement. She was a hardworking and devoted employee, and her coworkers truly adored her.

Beulah married the love of her life, Tom Anderson III, on April 23, 1975. Together, they built a loving family and welcomed three children: Brandy, T. Devin, and Nicholas. She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother who always put her family first, creating a home filled with warmth, laughter, and unconditional love. Beulah was a selfless and compassionate soul, always willing to drop whatever she was doing to lend a helping hand. Known for her sweet spirit and pure heart, she had a special way of making everyone feel seen, valued, and loved. She carried a gentle, uplifting light and embraced life with positivity and an open heart. Always ready for the next adventure, Beulah found joy in the little moments and created memories that will be cherished forever.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and selflessness that will continue to live on in all who knew her. Celebrating her life and carrying on her memory are her daughter, Brandy (Brandon) Shiver of Hopkins, SC, and their two children, Brandon Jr. and Bailee; her sons, T. Devin (Jamila) Anderson of Columbia, SC, and their three children, Camryn, Jamison, and Riley; and Nicholas (Kaycha) Anderson of Hopkins, SC, and their daughter, Samariah. She was preceded in death by her parents, Nick and Pauline Thomas; her mother-in-law, Carrie Bell Sims Anderson; her husband, Tom Anderson III; her sister, Eulah Bailey; and her brother, Nick Thomas Jr. She is also survived by her beloved siblings: her sisters, Ellen Tucker, Gail Shields, Jacqueline (Henry) Moye, and Donna Branch, all of Hopkins, SC; and her brothers, Jerry (the late Sandy) Thomas, Jimmy (Sallie Emma) Thomas, Gene (Carolyn) Thomas, Steve (Sandra) Thomas, Barry (Tonya) Thomas, and Wayne Thomas, all of Hopkins, SC. She is further survived by her sister-in-law, Brenda (Lanzie) Brown, and her brothers-in-law, Karl (Lucy) Anderson, Lewis Anderson, and SGM (Retired) James (Anna) Anderson.

Additionally, she is lovingly remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family members who were all deeply touched by her kindness, humor, and unwavering spirit.

Beulah Anderson will be remembered for the love she gave so freely and the kindness she shared so effortlessly. She will be deeply missed, but her beautiful legacy of love will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.
