

Obituary

With heavy hearts yet grateful spirits, we celebrate the life of Mrs. Rozenia Elizabeth Jennings Wilson, who peacefully transitioned from labor to reward on Thursday, March 12, 2026. Born on July 22, 1953, she lived a life filled with faith, love, wisdom, and service.

Mrs. Wilson was known for her beautiful smile, joyful laughter, and quick wit. She had a heart for people, especially children, and spent much of her life uplifting and guiding others with kindness and encouragement.

A proud graduate of C. A. Johnson High School, she continued her education at Benedict College, where she received her bachelor's in criminal justice. Her faith remained the center of her life. For 50 faithful years, she served as a Sunday School teacher at St. John Baptist Church, where she impacted generations by sharing God's word with love and dedication.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her devoted husband of 43 years, Leveston Wilson; her children, Brandon R. Wilson and Levata (Kyle) M. Coleman; her grandchildren, Don'ajah Flemming, Alex Coleman, Brandon M. Wilson, Te'anna Wilson, Ta'vion Wilson, and Kyle C. Coleman; and her great-grandchildren, Nasir Sligh and Ya'Mari Harry.

She is also survived by her siblings, Ruth (Hennies) McConnell of Anchorage, Alaska, Deborah Allen, Dorothy Robinson, and Thomas Jennings, along with a host of loving nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William Jennings Sr. and Willie Etta Toatley Jennings, and her siblings, Robert Jennings, William Jennings Jr., and Etta Toatley.

Mrs. Wilson leaves behind a legacy of faith, love, and service that will live on in the many lives she touched.

“Well done, good and faithful servant.”

When Tomorrow Starts

Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

*When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.*

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*
