

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
The sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long;
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go
For this is a journey we all must take;
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan –
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Ms. Evi Pressley Hudson, born on December 15, 1939, in Denmark, South Carolina, was the beloved daughter of Jessie Bell Pressley Davis and Clarence Pressley Jr. A native of Columbia, South Carolina, she departed this earthly life on Monday, April 20, 2026.

Evi was a devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother and a cherished member of her family. She was united in marriage to Robert Hudson, and through their loving union they were blessed with two children, Jessica Elaine Hudson and the late Colette Denise Hudson Reid.

Evi dedicated many years of her life working as a Certified Nursing Assistant, where she provided compassionate care to others with kindness and dignity. After her retirement, she found her greatest joy in spending time caring for her great-grandchildren, whom she loved dearly.

She was a faithful and devoted member of Bible Way Church of Christ on Piedmont Avenue, where she worshipped and served with a loving and steadfast spirit.

Evi was preceded in death by her parents, Jessie Bell Pressley Davis and Clarence Pressley, as well as four siblings, Martha Pressley, Mable Mccants, Arthur James Pressey, and John Henry Kinard; and her daughter, Colette Denise Hudson Reid.

Left to cherish her precious memories are her loving daughter, Jessica Hudson of the home; one sister, Diane P. White; one brother, Chester Pressley; four grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

Evi will be remembered for her strength, grace, and the love she shared with those around her. Her life was rooted in family, faith, and community.
