

Momma

*Momma, rest your weary soul.
You made our house a home that was whole.*

*You woke up early, stayed up late,
and loved us through our every mistake.*

*We see you sitting in your chair,
Your voice still echoes in the air.
The way you showed us that you care,
with a quiet love, a patient prayer.*

*You gave us all you had to give.
You showed us how to really live.
You never turned your faith away
you just kept loving us day by day.
Job well done, there is nothing left to do.*

*Rest your heart and We will carry you.
The home you built will never fall because your love remains through it all.*

*So close your eyes and let go now.
We'll make you proud. This is our vow.*

*Momma, rest.
You've done your part.
You'll always live inside our hearts.*

With Absolute Love, Your children, grandchildren and great-grandson...

Obituary

Mrs. Eloise "Memaw" Peay Hunter was born on May 2, 1951, in Pontiac, South Carolina. She was affectionately known as "Ella or Fluff" and to her grandchildren "Memaw". She was the eldest child of the late Ree Peay Sr. and Lucy Dell Ellison Peay. She unexpectedly departed this earthly life on Wednesday, April 15, 2026, at her home in Columbia, South Carolina.

Mrs. Hunter was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and graduated from Hanberry High School in Blythewood SC, Class of 1969. She married the love of her life, Landrus E. Hunter Jr., on November 16, 1971. From this union, they bore four children: Landrus III, Lucimarie, Tonja, and Allandra.

Mrs. Hunter was a servant to her community throughout her career, working as a certified nursing assistant, a home health specialist, and finally as a mental health specialist at Babcock Center, where she worked faithfully until she retired in 2020. Mrs. Hunter enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, and her great-grandson. She was a very dedicated member and a pillar of the Peay Family's monthly Birthday Club. Family was everything to her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ree Peay Sr. and Lucy Dell Ellison Peay; two brothers, Jimmy Lee Peay and Ree Peay Jr.; and two brothers-in-law, Mack Timothy Brooker, Sr. and Stanley Tyrone Hair.
