Life Well Lived

*A life well lived is a precious gift, of hope and strength and grace, from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place.
It's filled with moments,
sweet and sad with smiles and sometimes tears,
with friendships formed and good times shared,
and laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy, of joy and pride and pleasure,
a living, lasting memory
our grateful heart's will treasure.*

Reflections of the Life of Dina Shir Richardson

*A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled*

Dina Shir Richardson, the beloved daughter of Beatrice Richardson and the late Percy Richardson was born October 6, 1967, in Brooklyn, New York. On Tuesday April 14, 2026, Dina peacefully entered eternal rest.

Dina was educated in the public schools of Brooklyn, New York, graduating from Half Hollow Hills High School. Dina attended New York University in New York City and did further studies with the Royal Court Theater in London, England.

Dina was a self-employed gifted voice and instrument teacher who deeply loved her students. She shared her passion and talent with everyone around her, touching many lives through her creativity and love for music.

Dina was a loving daughter and devoted sister, above all else she cherished her family. Her kindness and humility were an inspiration to many, and she embraced life with grace and quiet dignity. Dina was vibrant and beloved, and she loved everyone that she came in contact with. She was a beautiful soul with a peaceful spirit and soft-spoken nature that brought comfort to all those around her. She lived a life full of grace, compassion and quiet strength embracing life wholeheartedly finding beauty in both the big moments and the quiet everyday ones.

Dina will be deeply missed, forever loved and always remembered by her mother; brothers, Tito Percy Richardson, Dwayne Richardson; sister, Stephanie (Lorenzo) Alexander; six aunts; three uncles; one niece and one nephew; two special friends, Valerie Dabney and Wendy Ruben; a host of loving relatives and cherished friends.

*Dina,
In moments shared, both small and grand,
You gave with heart, a guiding hand,
Like quiet waves upon the sand
Your love would ripple through the land.*

*A gentle laugh, a knowing smile,
Strength endured through every trial,
Someone special, all the while You walked with grace in every mile.*

*In morning light and soft winds too,
We feel the quiet strength of you
Your spirit shine in all we do
A legacy forever true*

*Now you rest where stars shine through,
In peaceful realms beyond our view,
We miss your voice, your warmth, your cheer
And keep you in our hearts so near.*

*Lovingly,
-Mom and Tito*
