Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside the still waters.

He restores my soul.

He leads me in the paths of righteousness

for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil;
for You are with me;

Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amen.

Obituary of Mrs. Clarice Ethel Rowe

Our beloved Clarice Ethel Rowe entered eternal rest on April 25, 2026. Clarice was born on August 11, 1944, in Blackville, South Carolina, the eldest child of Willie L. Scott Sr. and Annie Lou Harrison Scott. She grew up surrounded by love alongside her siblings.

She graduated from Lake View High School in 1964 in West Columbia, South Carolina, and soon after followed the love of her life, Alphonso Rowe to Washington, D.C. In 1965, Clarice married Alphonso at just 17 years old, and together they built a life grounded in love, commitment, and family. Their union was blessed with two sons, Anthony Rowe and Andre Rowe, and she later opened her heart even wider by adopting DeAngelo Rowe and Devin Rowe.

Clarice dedicated many years of service to the National Immigration Services under Homeland Security, where she built a respected career before retiring and moving back home. In 1990, she and her husband purchased their family home, where many cherished memories were made. She was also a faithful longtime member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, a place she and many members of the Rowe family truly called home.

If you knew Clarice, you knew how deeply she loved her family. Her grandchildren meant the world to her, and the love she gave was something truly special. She enjoyed shopping and had a way of finding the most beautiful things, but more than that, she carried herself with quiet confidence, grace, and style that people naturally noticed. She had her own way of “stepping,” and it fit her perfectly. After the passing of her husband, she did not get out as much, but she stayed connected in the ways that mattered most. You could always count on her to call, check on you, and lift your spirit. That was simply who she was—steady, loving, and present.

Clarice leaves behind a legacy of love through her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren; her devoted siblings, Sallie (Victor) Wise, Almeta (Essau) Taylor, Sarah J. Scott, Wilson Leon (Jureta) Scott, Clarence Larry (Erica) Scott, and Clinton Harry Scott; her beloved grandchildren: T'Darrow Bowman, Shanese Rowe, Anthony Rowe Jr., Devine Rowe, and Jordan Rowe; her treasured great-grandchildren, Malia Titus and Mazzi Bowman; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will miss her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Alphonso Rowe; her parents, Willie L. Scott Sr. and Annie Lou Harrison Scott; her granddaughter, Monique Rowe; her sister, Alwillie (“Billy Sr.”) Middleton; and her brother, Willie “Sonny” Scott. Clarice will be deeply missed, but the love she gave and the memories she created will remain with us always.
