A Father's Legacy

A Father's legacy, cherished and dear,
Through his love and wisdom, we have no fear.
He was our protector, our guiding light,
And in his absence, our hearts feel a slight.

But his legacy lives on, in all that we do,
In every decision, we consider his view.
His values, his morals, his unwavering belief,
In us, his children, is now our greatest relief.

For though he may be gone, his love still shines
bright,
Guiding us towards what is good and what is right.
His legacy will remain, an everlasting flame,
In our hearts, our father's memory will forever
proclaim.

Obituary

Mr. Kenneth Earl Brown was born January 15, 1963, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Albert Williams and Elizabeth Stroman. He departed this earthly life and entered eternal rest on Wednesday, May 27, 2026, at the age of 63.

Kenneth, affectionately known as “Kenny Boo,” was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. Throughout his life, he worked as a painter, construction worker, cook, and carpenter.

Mr. Brown was a kind, caring, and compassionate man whose presence brought comfort and joy to everyone who knew him. He was known for his warm smile, generous spirit, and willingness to help others, without hesitation. Whether he was sharing stories, offering guidance, or simply spending time with family and friends, he made a lasting impression on countless lives. Though he will be missed, his memory will live on in the hearts of his family and friends.

In addition to his parents, Kenny was preceded in death by his brother, Eric Brown; three sisters, Madeline Brown, Sandra Miller, and Vera Howard.

Mr. Kenneth Earl Brown leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Theresa Brown, of Columbia, South Carolina; mother of his children, Sharon Watkins, as they remained close and supportive of one another throughout the years; two sons, Kenneth Watkins and Lamarcus Watkins, both of Columbia, South Carolina; two daughters, Latisha Watkins and Tanisha Watkins, both of Columbia, South Carolina; stepchildren, Renada James, Alma Rice, Terreus Rice, Thaddeus Rice, and Johnathan Heyward; three grandsons, Deonta Reaves, Allen Anderson, and Karson Watkins; granddaughter, London Chestnut; four sisters, Geraldine Thompkins, Diane Wright, Norma Jean (Leonard) Hinnant, and Lynn Joyce Stroman, all of Columbia, South Carolina; sister-in-law, Charita Watkins; three brothers, Tarenzo Williams, Larry Williams, of Columbia, South Carolina, and Al Williams, of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
