Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glint on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

Of quiet birds in circling flight.

I am the soft starlight at night.

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there; I did not die.

Obituary

Mrs. Daisy Kelly Higgins was born in Eastover, SC, on February 18, 1941. She was the oldest of seven children born to the late Harry Kelly, Sr. and Lorine Scott Kelly. She departed this life on June 29, 2026.

Mrs. Higgins was educated in the Richland County school system. After school, she married her late husband John Higgins, whom she spent 50 beautiful years with and had three children. Together, she and her husband became members of Goodwill Baptist Church. In addition to raising her own three children, Mrs. Higgins also served as a foster parent to many other children.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two children, Bernard Higgins and Cassandra Dee Higgins; a sister, Mable Garner; a brother, Harry Kelly, Jr.; a granddaughter, Yolanda Williams, and a great grandson, Deantez Wells Seymour.

Mrs. Higgins enjoyed baking (especially sweet potato pies), interior decorating, and listening to music, particularly gospel songs and blues.

Mrs. Higgins leaves to cherish her memory a son, Anthony Higgins of Eastover, SC; four sisters, Gertrude Murray, Corine Appleby, and Pauline Barno, all of Eastover, SC; and Sharon Kelly-Watson, of Irmo, SC; five grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and many other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
