

A Letter To Our Pop's

Pop's In Our Lives You Have Always

Been A Steady Hand

No Matter What

There For Mom And For Us

A Man Of Patience, There To Guide

You've Always Been By Our Side

Your Unyielding Love And Wisdom

Shaped Us Into The Life We Now Know

You Shared That Same Wisdom

With Any That Crossed Our Home's Threshold

In All Our Endeavors You Gave You Fullest Support

In Our Success You Too Rejoiced

Even In Moments In Which We Thought We Failed

Your Love Waivered Not

You Showed That You Were There

And So Today With Broken Hearts

It Is With Great Pride

We Can Say

That Truly You Are Not Gone

For In Each Of Us A Part Of You

Forever Lives On!

Obituary

Mr. John Johnson, Jr., widower of Katie C. Johnson, peacefully departed this life Monday, June 29, 2026 at Prisma Health Hospital. Born November 1, 1939 in Sumter, SC, he was the son of the late John Johnson, Sr. and Christine Crim Johnson. He was a graduate of Lincoln High School, Class of 1959 where he was an excellent athlete, excelling in football and basketball.

“Pops”, as he was affectionately known, was a kind and loving man to his wife, children, grandchildren, family and friends. He was a father figure to many neighborhood children and beyond. His personality was so magnetic, as if he never met a stranger. Everyone loved him. He became a member of Brookland Baptist church on June 21, 1998. Upon joining Brookland, he made an immediate impact, participating in all men’s day events; golf tournaments, as well as being a member of the softball team. John had a passion for playing golf with his sons, brothers and friends. He participated in several charity tournaments.

John retired from Wicks Lumber Company after 27 years, where he worked as the top salesman in the region, winning several awards. He also worked at Ben Arnold for 16 years as a warehouse clerk and retired to take care of his wife.

John was an active member of several organizations; in the community, he was a block captain for the neighborhood association; he was also a member of the Lincoln High School Alumni School Committee where they raised money to purchase the oldest black high school in South Carolina.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, one who died as an infant, and Edward Williams, Sr.; sisters, Rebecca Dyson, Miranda Johnson, and Pearl Williams
