See You Later, Walter In Loving Memory of My Brother

Walter, this is not goodbye, It's simply "see you later." For God has called you home to rest, And heaven couldn't wait much longer.

Though tears may fall from grieving eyes, Our love will never end. You'll always be my brother, You'll always be my friend. You left us precious memories, A smile we won't forget. The lives you've touched, and the love you gave, Will stay within us yet.

The road was not always easy, But you kept pressing through. Now every burden has been lifted, And all things have been made new.
So I'll choose to hold God's promise close Whenever my heart feels pain, For those who place their trust in Him Will meet again someday.

Until that day, dear Walter, I'll carry you in my heart I'll cherish every memory we made, Though for now we're apart.

Rest peacefully, my brother. Your race has now been won. You've heard the Father gently say, "Welcome home, My son."

So this is not goodbye, Walter.

When my heart aches, I'll pray. I'll love you always. I'll miss you deeply. But I know I'll see you again someday.
