God of Compassion

*I am Fragile and in need.
When I am consumed by grief
And sorrow overcomes my heart,
Walk me from the darkness of death
To the vividness of life.
And may my hope be found in you
Amen.*

Obituary

Ms. Barbara Ann Harley was born September 1, 1958, in Orangeburg, South Carolina to the late Alfair Palmer-Sims and James Phillips. She entered eternal rest on Sunday, June 26, 2026, at Prisma Baptist Hospital, following a brief illness.

She was a proud graduate of Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School and continued her education at Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College.

Throughout her career, Barbara faithfully served others through her work at the University of South Carolina and Providence Hospital. She was dedicated, hardworking, and had a lasting impact on those who had the privilege of working alongside her.

Barbara was united in marriage to Fred L. Harley. Together they were blessed with two children, Alanna M. Harley and Thanos "Rico" Harley, who were the pride and joy of her life. She was also a devoted grandmother to Alford Goodwin IV, Amirah Simmons, and Reagan Harley. Her love for her children and grandchildren was unconditional, and she cherished every moment spent with them.

A woman of deep faith, Barbara believed strongly in God and lived her life guided by His love and grace. She found great joy in reading and writing poetry, using her words to inspire, comfort, and express the beauty she saw in life.

Barbara will be remembered for her loving heart, caring spirit, generosity, remarkable intelligence, and wonderful sense of humor. She was a selfless giver who always placed the needs of others before her own. Her warmth, wisdom, and compassion touched countless lives, and her legacy of kindness will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her son, Armand Phillips; brothers, Jessie Sims, Jr. and Isaac Sims; and sister, Mary Lee Sims.

Ms. Barbara Ann Harley leaves to cherish her precious memory: her husband, Fred Harley; children, Alanna Harley (Andre) and Thanos Harley (Jacquelyn); grandchildren, Alford Goodwin IV, Amirah Simmons, and Reagan Harley; siblings, Rebecca Glover, James Sims, Willie Sims (Evelyn), and Jessie Mae Pelzer; a host of nieces, nephews and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
