Obituary

Mr. Clifton Jackson, Sr., affectionately known as “Jack,” was born on July 19, 1941, in West Columbia, South Carolina, to the late John and Eliza Jackson. He peacefully departed this life on August 29, 2026.

Clifton received his education in the public schools of Lexington County. He was a faithful member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah’s Witnesses

He began a more than 30-year career in the commercial food industry as a Meat Cutter with the South Carolina Department of Mental Health. Through his dedication, hard work, and commitment to excellence, he later advanced to the position of Supervisor. In that role, he generously shared his knowledge, talents, and expertise with many of the staff members under his leadership.

Following his retirement in 1993, Clifton continued working part-time for The State newspaper for several years. He was a hardworking and devoted family man who took great pride in providing and caring for his loved ones.

In December 1965, Clifton was united in holy matrimony to his beloved wife, Ida Earlene Boston. Their marriage was blessed with more than 60 years of love, companionship, and cherished memories. Together, they built a life centered around family, faith, and devotion to one another.

“Jack” was a loving husband, devoted father, and caring family member. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to his family, friends, and others in the community. His kindness, generosity, wisdom, and warm spirit touched the lives of many.

He leaves behind a legacy of love and treasured memories that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be truly missed by all who had the distinct pleasure of knowing him.

In addition to his parents, Clifton was preceded in death by his son, Clifton Jackson, Jr.; his daughter, Cassandra Tameaka Jackson; brothers, Chappelle Jackson and Steve Jackson; and sisters, Carmalee Jackson, Elizabeth Watson, Lessemee Williams, Blanche Hayes, Alma Jackson, Dorothy Murphy, and Rudene Lawson.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving wife, Ida Boston Jackson; three daughters, Deborah Boston, Valerie Hoefer, and Elizabeth Jackson; two sons, Earl (Darlene) Boston and Karl (Harriet) Boston; one brother, Herman Jackson; eleven grandchildren, Keith Hoefer, Christy Hoefer, Earl Boston II, Kortney Boston, Jonathan Boston, Kayla Boston, Colin Boston, Chandler Boston, Jalynn Jacobs, John Bryan Jacobs, and Kara Boston; and eight great-grandchildren.
