

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free*

Obituary

Mrs. Princilla A. Elam-Moore was born on August 12, 1979, in Beaufort, South Carolina, to the late Edward Elam Jr. and Jannie Bell Tyson-Elam. Princilla was the youngest of eight children born to this union, and was a bright, remarkably precocious child from an early age. She departed this earthly life on Friday, August 21, 2026.

Princilla was educated in the public schools of Jasper County and graduated with honors from Jasper County High School, Class of 1997. She continued her education at the University of South Carolina, earning a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science in 2007. Driven by a passion for learning and growth, she went on to earn a Master of Business Administration (MBA) with a concentration in Political Science and Government from Webster University, in 2009. Princilla was a licensed real estate agent and owner of Princilla Moore Realty, where she dedicated herself to helping families find and purchase their dream homes in the Columbia area.

While attending the University of South Carolina, Princilla met the love of her life, James "Jamie" Moore Jr., in 2001. Their instant connection blossomed into a deep, enduring friendship that culminated in marriage on September 8, 2011. The most joyous milestone of Princilla and Jamie's life was the birth of their beloved son, Princeton James Moore. Princilla treasured being Princeton's first teacher, singing with him, instilling in him a love for sports, traveling as a family, and showing him how to embrace life to the fullest.

Sharp-witted, radiant, and full of life, Princilla was a true joy to be around. An avid and passionate sports fan, she loved the excitement of game day and following her favorite teams. Although a proud alumna of the USC Gamecocks, she was a die-hard North Carolina Tar Heels fan through and through. She also loved karaoke and cherished every moment spent with family and friends. Princilla was a fun, kind, generous, and outgoing person who truly never met a stranger. To know her was to love her, and whether you knew her for ten minutes or ten years, she always made you feel like part of her inner circle.

In addition to her parents, Princilla was preceded in death by her brother, Ralph Elam; and her sister, Mary L. C. Elam-Young.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: her devoted husband, James "Jamie" Moore Jr.; her cherished son, Princeton James Moore; her loving siblings, Loxcenia (Harry) Jackson, of Pineland, SC, Alexander Elam, of Panama City, FL, Bernadette Elam-Brown, of Tillman, SC, Anthony (Criscenda) Elam, of Ridgeland, SC, and Veronica Elam-Smith, of Columbia, SC; her parents-in-law, James Earl Moore Sr. and Ruby M. Moore; her sister-in-law, Latonya (Leverette II) Williams; a host of loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and lifelong friends.
