

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now
He set me free*

Obituary of

Mr. James “Cartoon” Miller III

Mr. James “Cartoon” Miller III was born August 22, 1951, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Deacon James Miller, Jr. and Beatrice Miller. He departed this earthly life on Friday, September 11, 2026.

James was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and was a proud graduate of Booker T. Washington High School, Class of 1969. During his high school years, he excelled in athletics and was a star football player on their championship teams.

He was affectionately known as “Cartoon” or “Toon,” by those who knew him, because of his playful and joking personality. After graduating high school, he was employed as a concrete finisher, working with his father.

Mr. Miller was a member of Zion Mill Creek Baptist Church from an early age.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one son, Anthony Miller; and two brothers, Alonzo Miller and Derrick Miller.

Mr. James “Cartoon” Miller III leaves to cherish his memory: three sons, Broderick Lindsey, Christian Lindsey and Bryant Lindsey; two daughters, Tonya Martin and Sandriel Moore; two sisters, Mary Ann Bookert and Cendea Miller-Moorehead; a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and extended family, all of whom will miss dearly.
