REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE
Mr. Antwain Devon Thomas

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing." 2 Timothy 4:7–8

Mr. Antwain Devon Thomas was born on December 18, 1980, in Columbia, South Carolina. On Wednesday, November 4, 2026, Antwain peacefully departed this earthly life, leaving behind a legacy of love, faith, and cherished memories.

Antwain was a beautiful soul with a kind and caring heart. He had a special way of making everyone feel loved and remembered. Whether through a phone call, a thoughtful conversation, or an unexpected check-in, Antwain made it a point to stay connected with his family. His genuine concern for others and his loving spirit was among the many qualities that made him so special. Above all, Antwain was a devoted and loving father who cherished his children, Tsiann and Devontae, beyond measure. They held a special place in his heart, and being their father was one of his greatest joys and proudest blessings. His love for them was unconditional and unwavering, and he always wanted nothing but the very best for them.

Antwain also had a deep love for the Lord and a sincere desire to grow in his knowledge of God's Word. He was a dedicated student of the Bible, often visiting the library each week to spend time studying the Scriptures. He read the Bible with great devotion, embracing God's Word as a source of wisdom, strength, and guidance for his life. His faith was not simply something he spoke about; it was something he treasured in his heart. Antwain earned his associate and bachelor's degrees while attending Monroe University in Bronx, New York. Though his earthly journey has come to an end, the love Antwain shared, the lives he touched, and the memories he created will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Antwain leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving mother, Gwendolyn Thomas; beloved children, Tsiann Thomas and Devontae Thomas; his dear aunt, Sandra Tobin; and his devoted uncle, Douglas Thomas. (Gwendolyn Thomas and Douglas Thomas both raised Antwain). He also leaves a host of other loving aunts, cousins, relatives, and dear friends who will forever treasure the joy, laughter, and love he brought into their lives. While our hearts will miss his presence, his unexpected phone calls, and his caring spirit, we find comfort in knowing that his earthly struggles are over and that he is resting in the loving arms of the Lord. Antwain, your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure. You are loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure. Rest peacefully in the arms of Jesus.
